2019 / 2020
CURIOSITY FULFILLED

Delivering a truly unique itinerary exploring the exotic destination by mega-yacht, itineraries will depart directly from Havana or Cienfuegos and will sail the southwestern coast and islands as well as cruising along the northwestern coast of the island. The 112-guest mega-yacht, SeaDream I & II, will provide the ideal vantage point to experience the Caribbean nation's rich, cultural landscape.

SeaDream offers one complimentary Yachting Land Adventure with approved cultural, historical and person-to-person activities in each port of call in Cuba.

Havana

The capital of the island nation and the most populated at over 2.1 million residents, Havana is the 4th most populous area in the Caribbean region. The walled capital was founded by Spain in the 16th century. The sinking of an American warship in 1898 signaled the beginning of the Spanish-American war. "Old Havana" became a UNESCO World Heritage site in the 80's. Havana experienced exponential growth in the 1930's when the city became a major tourist destination until 1959 when Fidel Castro came into power following the revolution. Visitors to Havana enjoy colorful displays of history, culture, architecture, music, and the arts.

Cienfuegos

La Perla del Sur, or "Pearl of the South, this southern city was first populated by indigenous peoples and later settled by French immigrants in the 1800's. The port, very large by the standards of the times, was instrumental in multi-national trade, especially between South America and Jamaica. Sagar was a major export of the city. The city's Urban Historic Center is a UNESCO World-Heritage Site, serving as an example of urban planning accomplished during the 19th century by the Spanish. Other attractions include Castillo de Nuestra Senora (a castle/fort), historic cathedrals, botanical gardens, a cigar factory, and the University of Cienfuegos.

2019 - 2020 Itineraries

The small, island nation, which remains inaccessible to many, is a land brimming with curiosities, hosting experiences of culture, history and personal enrichment. SeaDream's Cuba voyages will sail the island from Havana or Cienfuegos, with stops in some of the country's most storied and least-traveled ports.

Important note regarding travel to Cuba: Travel to Cuba by citizens of the United States remains restricted. SeaDream's Cuba program meets certain specific requirements for exemption from this restriction, but only under specific conditions. In general, US Citizens must participate in government approved cultural, historical, and person to person activities on a daily basis when in a Cuban port. These required land adventures are included with all guests voyage fare. Contact SeaDream or your Travel Professional for Yachting Land Adventures upgrade options. As always, a valid passport is required for travel for all guests. We recommend that guests of all nationalities contact their appropriate government agency or a professional visa service regarding any additional requirements that may be needed for travel to Cuba, including but not limited to required documentation and related to pre- and post-voyage travel plans. Please refer to your Travel Professional for specific entry requirements to Cuba.
